Re: *United States v. Kromah, et al., 19 Cr. 338 (GHW)

Dear Judge Woods:

The Government writes, with the consent of all parties, pursuant to the Court's Order dated May 16, 2020, regarding trial scheduling and related submissions in the above-referenced case. (See ECF No. 50.)

Consistent with the letter from Conor McNamara, Esq., dated May 15, 2020, the Government understands that Mr. Kromah is in the process of retaining new counsel to represent him in this matter. (See ECF No. 49.) Based on the Government's discussions with current counsel for Mr. Kromah, the Government understands that any new counsel will be retained this week. Amara Cherif, a co-defendant in this matter, was extradited to the United States on or about April 2, 2020. (See ECF No. 35.) And as the Court is aware, in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, as of April 20, 2020, jury trials within this District have been suspended until further notice. See In re: Coronavirus/COVID-19 Pandemic, 20 Misc. 197 (CM).

Given the (i) continued uncertainty regarding when it may be safe for jury trials to resume; (ii) difficulties in preparing for trial under the current conditions; (iii) impending change of counsel for Mr. Kromah; (iv) recent extradition of Amara Cherif; and (v) need for Mr. Cherif's counsel and any new counsel for Mr. Kromah to receive and review discovery, the parties respectfully propose that the current trial date for Mr. Kromah (and all deadlines related thereto) be adjourned sine die, and that the Court and the parties discuss a new proposed date at the conference currently scheduled for June 30, 2020, in light of the conditions obtaining at that time.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> For the avoidance of doubt, the Government anticipates that the current hearing date for any defense motions filed by Mr. Kromah, which is currently scheduled for July 10, 2020, will remain, though it will no longer serve as a final pretrial conference.

The Government has conferred with current counsel for Mr. Kromah and counsel for Mr. Cherif, both of whom consent to this proposal.<sup>2</sup>

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney
Southern District of New York

Application granted. The trial date for Mr. Kromah, and the associated deadlines for pre-trial motions and other submissions are adjourned sine die. The conference currently scheduled to take place on June 30, 2020 at 3:30 p.m. will take place on June 29, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. No later than June 16, 2020, counsel for each defendant is directed to do the following (1) confer with their client regarding the client's willingness to participate in the conference by remote means; (2) confirm the location of the client (MCC, MDC or other); (3) state whether counsel wishes to confer with the client prior to the conference AND, if so, the telephone number at which counsel can be reached 15 minutes before the conference. If the client agrees to proceed by remote means, counsel is directed to confer with the client regarding the template consent form in use in the Southern District of New York, and to provide an executed version of the form to the Court in advance of the conference if feasible. The Court expects to set a new motion schedule, hearing date, and trial date during the June 29, 2020 conference. The parties are directed to confer in advance of the hearing regarding each of those topics.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the motion pending at Dkt. No. 51.

SO ORDERED
May 18, 2020
